

HOAJ Manuscript Transfer Agreement

Herbert Publications ask for a formal manuscript transfer agreement. Before resubmitting the manuscript, the author is requested to read and sign this form. Author submitting the manuscript takes consent of any co-authors and email a scanned copy of the completed form to the respective journal editor in concern. Manuscript will not be considered for review without a signed copy of this agreement.

Manuscript Title : _____
Submission Date : _____
Former Manuscript Id : _____
Former Journal : _____
Receiving Journal : _____

I hereby agree with the terms and conditions mentioned below and confirm the mutual transfer of submitted manuscript.

Signature : _____
Corresponding Author's Full Name : _____
Title : _____
Name of the Institution : _____
Date : _____

Terms and Conditions:

The author warrants the mutual transfer of the above named manuscript between Herbert Publications journals when it is not suitable to the scope of a journal or declined by the editor.

The author warrants the transfer of all identities, reports and comments along with the manuscript from the formerly handled editor to the receiving editor.

The author warrants that they do not appeal the decision of previous journal concurrently when the manuscript is under consideration with new journal.

The author warrants that the agreement can be used only once for a manuscript.